

NIH Stroke Scale Certification

All residents rotating through Neurology need to become certified in administering the NIHSS. This is a requirement as part of our Stroke Center certification

We offer this opportunity for interested medical students as well

The website is:

<http://nihstrokescale.org/>

Once completed I ask that a copy of the certificate be sent to me either an electronic copy via email, or a print copy.